Peanut the puppy woke up with a wiggle and a great big stretch.
Today was his first day at Clover School!

Mama packed his little red backpack. "Be brave, my Peanut," she whispered.

At the school gate, Peanut waved to Mama. "Bye! Bye! Bye!" he shouted, wagging his tail as fast as it could go.

Inside, the classroom was full of new friends. A bunny, a kitten, and a tiny turtle all smiled at him, and Peanut felt his worry melt away like morning dew in the warm sunshine.

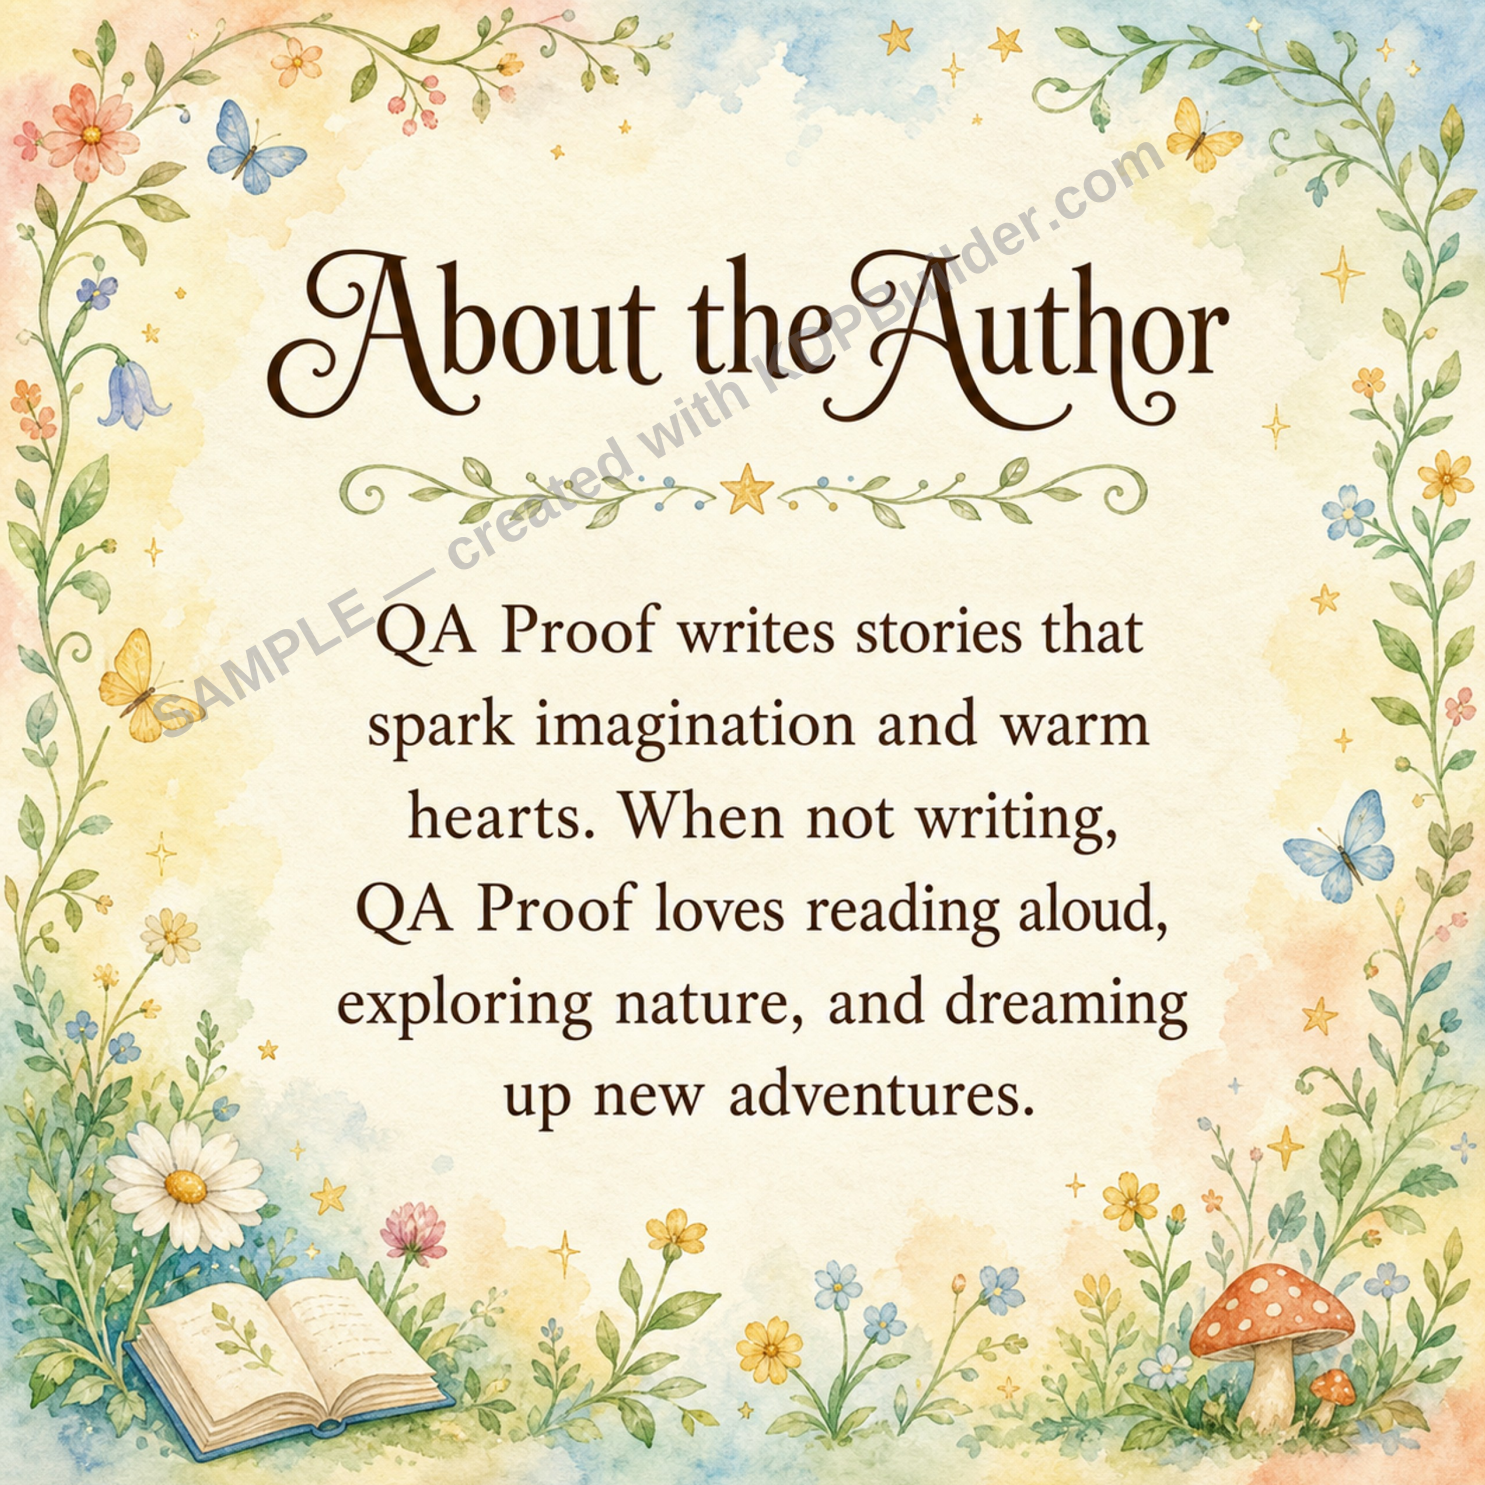

By the end of the day, Peanut had made three new friends and learned one wonderful thing: being brave just means trying.

That night, Peanut dreamed of tomorrow. School was not scary at all
— it was the best adventure ever.
